

1990 GIRLS' ICE HOCKEY TEAM

Introduced by Jo-anne "Joey" Alissi Cosgriff, MD '90 and Anthony Dennis, Head Coach

The remarkable 1990 Girls' Ice Hockey team made school history by winning the first-ever New England Prep School Championship in that sport – the crowning achievement of a season in which they went 17-0, continuing a 47-game winning streak. Led by Coach Anthony Dennis, Coach Joeline Butress, and Coach Andre Lacroix, along with co-captains Joey Alissi and Michele K. Amidon '90, the team included Margot Moses '91, Jessica Devine '90, Chantal Lacroix Ayers '90, Heather Walsh a member of the Class of '91, Dana Finkelstein '91, Kathryn Antos Mikkelson '91, Lisa Tulimieri Thibodeaux '90, Frances van Huystee Morris '90, and Thalia Ghiglia '91. Three team members – Joey Alissi, Michele Amidon, and Chantal Lacroix Ayers – were also inducted into the Hall of Fame as individual athletes in 2007, 2013, and this year, respectively.
