

S. CLARK PEASLEE '69

Introduced by Joel Lorden P '74, '76, '80, '87, '92, Faculty Emeritus, Athletic Hall of Fame Class of 2007

A three-sport athlete, Clark excelled at skiing, football, and lacrosse, serving as captain of the lacrosse team his senior year. Among others, he won the MacDonald Award, the Larkin Skiing Trophy, and the Williams College award. As a senior, he was named All Conference in lacrosse and the Scholar-Athlete of the Northern Connecticut Chapter of the National Football Association. At Princeton, Clark captained the lacrosse team and represented the Tigers in the North-South All-Star Game in June 1973. In 1975, he was named MVP in the Connecticut Valley Lacrosse Conference. Owner of Peaslee Design, he designs and builds custom and handcrafted furniture and cabinets in New Paltz, NY, where he lives with his wife Sherrill Silver.
