

JENNIFER WHITE PENNOYER, MD '85

Introduced by Jo-anne Alissi P '85, '89, '90, Faculty Emerita

A star in three sports (soccer, lacrosse, and ice hockey), Jen earned 9 varsity letters; as a senior, she was captain of the ice hockey team, MVP, and shared the Robert Lazaar Award for the senior girl who contributed most to athletics. She continued playing hockey at Harvard, where she was All-Ivy for four years and earned All-ECAC Honorable Mention. Harvard was Ivy League champs in three of her four years on the team. As a senior, she was team captain and received the Joe Bertana Award for Leadership and Dedication. Jen is a dermatologist in private practice in Bloomfield, CT. She lives in West Hartford with her husband Bill and children Sophie '14, Nina, and Grant '22.

