

Dr. Robert Waskowitz - Class of 1978

Sports: Soccer, Lacrosse, Ski, Basketball

Played in College: Amherst

Bob was a member of the varsity lacrosse, soccer and ski teams while at K-O and was a co-captain of the undefeated lacrosse team in 1978 when they were Western New England Secondary School Champions. He was a four year starter on the Amherst College Lacrosse Team, a tri-captain his senior year, and helped his team become Little Three Champions. Bob was chosen for the East-West All-Star Lacrosse Team in 1982 and received the Coburn Lacrosse Award that same year. He continued to play club level lacrosse as part of the Connecticut Valley, UPENN, UVM and Pittsburgh Lacrosse Clubs. Bob later returned to K-O to coach lacrosse with Stew Lindsay and Bob Stiehler and travelled with the team to Australia. He became the sports medicine senior team physician for Central Connecticut State University, New Britain High School and Newington High School. For the last nine years, Bob has been one of the two sports medicine physicians who cover the ESPN Summer and Winter X-Games. Nine year ago, he was elected to the Connecticut State Medical Society (CSMS) Committee on the Medical Aspect of Sports (CMAS) for the state of Connecticut. Bob also coached his children's lacrosse and soccer teams in the town of Avon.
