

ANDREW C. KRUGMAN, CLASS OF 1986

At K-O, Andy excelled in varsity soccer, basketball and tennis. He was co-captain of the soccer team his junior year, and he made the KIT All-Tournament Basketball Team. In tennis, Andy won the New England B Doubles Title.

Andy received the M.W. Jacobus Soccer Award for the athlete who has distinguished himself all through the season in the skills of the game, qualities of leadership and in dedication to the play of the team.

He also was honored with the William R. MacDonald Award, given to that student who has proved himself an outstanding male athlete and who best exemplifies diligence in practice, sportsmanship and spirit of competition.

Tough, quiet and cooperative, Andy could reach top speed in two steps. He possessed incredible desire, concentration and ability to anticipate.

After K-O, Andy played soccer at Middlebury where he was a four-year member of the varsity team and named All-New England his junior and senior years and co-captain his senior year. He also played basketball his freshman year at Middlebury.

Andy came back to K-O in 1991. He coached boys varsity basketball and currently serves as the assistant boys varsity soccer coach and the head boys varsity tennis coach.
