

JESSICA CALEY RICE, CLASS OF 1994

As a student-athlete at K-O, Jess competed in varsity track and cross country and was captain of both teams. She set the K-O cross-country course record that still stands and the Founders course record. She was the New England Prep School winner and was awarded the Boston Globe New England Female Cross-Country Athlete of the Year award.

After K-O, Jess attended Williams College, where she was a Freshman All-American for Division III in cross country. Her sophomore year she came in first in all seven of her collegiate races and set four course records.

During college she won the New England Division I Championships, the NESCAC Championships, the New England NCAA Division III Championships and the National NCAA Division II Championships.

Jess was an All-American and was a finalist for the Honda Award, which is given to the nation's top female athlete.
